BRIGHTON HANDICAP AND CUP.

The entries for the Brighton Handicap and Brighton Cup have been announced. The handicap has seventy-six entries, or nearly double as many as it had last year, and the Brighton Cup presents forty-one nominations, as against twenty seven last year. There is scarcely a thoroughbred of prominence east or west that is not numbered in the list. The Brighton Cup, as is well known, is a weight-for-age race, and as president Engeman has decided to have it run at the October meeting of the association it probably will be, and, in any event, ought to be a much better race than it ever has been heretofore.

Chief among the entries for the handicap are Gold Heels, Grey Friar, Hyphen, Colonel Bill, River Pirate, Huntress, Masterman, the crack filly Eugenia Burch, Africander, Heno, Blues, Olympian, a full half dozen from John Madden's string, The Huguenot, Herbert, five from Alexander Shields' stable, with Advance Guard in the lead, Chilton, Oom Paul, Irish Lad and the imported horse Good Morning II., with L. V. Bell's other stars on the list. The weights for this event will be announced on January 27. The entries follow:

CLEOPHUS' NAME.

A few weeks ago Samuel P. Lancaster died. In the center of the Blue Grass region there is a very old scholastic institution, much older than Vassar or the other much-talked-of colleges of the present day. It is called Nazareth Academy, and is conducted under the auspices of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Kentucky. In the early '90s two young nieces of the late Mr. Lancaster attended this academy.

A handsome filly by the famous Wagner had been foaled at the Lancaster farm some months before, and one day when the little girls came home their uncle told them they could name the youngster, which already was their particular pet. They selected many names, such as Sunshine, Springtime, Apple Blossom, Rainbow and others of the kind they thought beautiful, but all these were returned with the information that they had already been taken.

"Let us call her Cleophus," said one of the girls. Sister Cleophus was the Mother Superior of the academy. The name was sent on and the filly was registered.

When the good sisters heard that the name of their superiress had been given to a horse they were thoroughly shocked, and the two little girls who had innocently offended them went around with tear-stained faces.

When the filly was two years old her running qualities were purchased by Michael F. Dwyer for $4,000. He heard the story of how she received her name and the trouble it had brought upon the girls.

"If Cleophus turns out as I expect she will," said he to Mr. Lancaster, "I will square things with the sisters."

The Mother Superior had to make a journey to New York every year to report to the head of the order in that city, and while on one of these trips she saw in a studio a magnificent statue of St. Joseph. The price was $1,000 and the little sister never could save up enough money to buy it. Many times she prayed that something might happen which would enable her to bring this St. Joseph to her academy in the Kentucky hills. In the meantime the filly which was named after her was being discussed by turfmen near and far. Her trial work was sensational. What the other famous Wagner mare—Imp—was later on, Cleophus was as a two-year-old.

In the Debutante Stakes at Louisville she met Suisun, the pride of California, and finished in front. Then came the match race between this great pair of fillies, and Cleophus, with Simms up, again defeated Suisun.

Mike Dwyer has celebrated many turf victories, but he never was happier than the night after this race. True to his word, he sent a check to the Mother Superior of Nazareth, and little Sister Cleophus, although it was not the time for her regular trip to New York, went there at once and brought back the statue of St. Joseph upon which her heart had been set for years.—New Orleans Item.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It is reported that Secretary Nathanson, of the Harlem Jockey Club, has notified horsemen that jockey Winkfield has had his suspension removed by the Harlem judges. Winkfield was sent for by Judge Hamilton at Harlem last fall to explain a ride in a certain race. He ignored the summons and remained away from the judges' stand. The judges set him down for contempt of court, and the discipline cost Winkfield a lot of money, for he was in demand at Chicago. The remission of the punishment will enable him to accept mounts outside of the Corrigan stable, which has second call on his services. He is under contract to P. Dunne.

Jockey King, who is to do the riding for the stable of S. J. Smith the coming season, got a severe fall while exercising Northern Star at Gravesend track recently. The horse reared up and fell back, landing squarely on the rider. The boy was picked up in an unconscious condition, and it was believed at first that he was badly hurt. He was carried to the stable and a physician was summoned, who worked over him half an hour before signs of life were apparent. He came around all right, but complained of severe pains in the head.

Winner—B. f. by Esher—Intacta (trained by T. Clare). Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Sweet Nell was well placed throughout and fought it out sharply all of the last furlong and hung on gamely in the deciding drive, but just managed to last long enough to stall off Noweta. The latter was wearing the winner down and would have won in another stride. Apple Sweet began slowly, but saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and outgamed Fading Light in the end. Brush By was on the extreme outside all the way and was given a bad ride. Agnes Mack swerved to the outside in the stretch run.

Winner—B. c. by Quicklime—Belle Baden (trained by C. Wright). Went to post at 2:32. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Paul Creyton galloped along behind the leaders until in the final furlong, where he took command when his rider was ready and drew away in the last sixteenth. Malster ran a good race and outgamed Ed L. in the final drive. Redfern had the latter under restraint for the first half, but the horse tired when he called on him strongly. The Steward showed early speed, but tired in the stretch run. Grantor saved ground at the turn into the homestretch, but quit when it came to a drive. Frank M. was going fast at the end.

Overweights—Charles Ramsey, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. m. by Enthusiast—Vanquish (trained by E. Corrigan). Went to post at 3:07. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. L'E'trenne made her field look cheap, showed much the most speed and was well in hand for the entire trip. Wealth was crowded at the start and was hard ridden all of the last quarter. Rankin finished fast. It was a two-horse race all the way.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Extra (trained by E. Corrigan). Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. Hargis was well ridden. Redfern waited with him until in the last quarter before making a move. He was hard ridden all of the last furlong and was going away at the end. The Messenger ran a good race and outgamed Port Royal when it came to a drive. The latter ran well, but was tiring at the end. Carl Kahler was used up in setting the pace with Port Royal and quit badly. Ray seems to have lost her good eastern form.

Scratched—37083 Wealth, 110.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

While at exercise several days ago Inspector Shea collided with Maghoni, recently purchased by Arnold & Co. from M. Goldblatt, carrying her into the fence and seriously injuring her. One of her hips was injured, and it is not likely that she will be seen at the post again this winter.

Prowl, winner of the Arkansas Derby last spring, has been fired, and will probably not be seen at the post again until toward the end of the New Orleans meeting.

Winner—B. c, by Foul Shot—The Kitten (trained by J. Lowe).
Went to post at 4:07. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second handily. Manser was outrun for the first half, but came around the leaders at the turn into the homestretch and fought it out stoutly with John Coulter all through the last furlong. The latter showed the most early speed, but swerved across the track at the last sixteenth and finished next to the inside rail. The Wizard closed a big gap in the last quarter and was coming very fast at the end. Floyd K. and Blanco tired and quit when it came to a hard drive.

Scratched—37034 Glendon, 108.

Overweights—The Wizard, 11 pounds; Ravenspur, 11.

Manser, show, evens. John Coulter, show, evens. The Wizard, show, 6 to 1. Floyd K., show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. f, by Hastings—St. Priscilla (trained by P. J. Nolan).
Went to post at 4:42. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Leenja was rated along to the far turn, then went around the leaders and at the end was driving to the limit to stall off Sarilla. The latter came fast after swinging to the outside at the turn into the homestretch and would have won in a few more strides. Flaneur showed the most early speed and hung on longer than usual. Rough Rider reared up when the barrier was released and was practically left at the post, but closed a big gap. Blue Ridge and Annie Lauretta ran well to the stretch.

Scratched—36950 Georgia Gardner, 103; (36915) Potheen, 103; 36997 Heroics, 101; 37065 Ceylon, 96.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. f. by Lissak—Victoria IV. (trained by H. Hamilton).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Quatre worked clear when a furlong out after a rough trip and appeared to be winning easily, but was brought to a drive at the end. Snare, away badly, went around the field on the turn and, finishing like a whirlwind, just failed to get up and at the weights was evidently best. Pure Dale was interfered with early, but finished fast with clear sailing in the last furlong. Clarinette made up ground in the stretch and is improving. Escarola was going well in the stretch. Donami tired badly at the end after excessive early use. Pickaway showed good, early speed and was crowded in the stretch. Anvil raced into the lead early from a poor start and failed to stay, but is a good looker and should improve.

Scratched—31218 Alkawan, 166.

Corrected weights—The Owl, 109.

Quatre, show, 1 to 3. Snare, show, evens. Pure Dale, show, 3 to 1.

Time, 24, 49, 1:16, 1:28.

Winner—Br. g. by Rio Bravo—Ona (trained by J. Green).
Went to post at 2:49. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Rasp got away poorly and worked a rough journey, raced wide into the lead on the stretch turn and retained his advantage to the end without urging. Doreen received a bad start and came on from last position, finished like a whirlwind and at the weights was probably best. Claudator was crowded in the last furlong, but finished fast and gamely. Platoni was under the whip throughout, excessively used and tired at the end. Harry Thatcher is in good form, but favors soft going. Rose of Hilo quit in the stretch. El Pilar ran a fast middle half from a bad start and tired in the last quarter.

Scratched—31925 Sailor, 169.

Corrected weights—Harry Thatcher, 104; Esternell, 94.

Overweights—Claudator, 3 pounds; Platoni, 2; Alaria, 3.

Winner—Ch. c. by Bright Phoebus—Lovelight (trained by W. P. Magrane).
Went to post at 3:17. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Ed Lilburn got away running, made the most of his advantage and under a vigorous finish just lasted out. Dotterel got away slowly and raced into prominence, then fell away on the stretch turn, but came again and was wearing the winner down at the end. Past Master raced around the entire field on the turns and finished out the last quarter like a whirlwind and was best. Mr. Farnum was closing up well at the end. Fort Wayne, away poorly, was pocketed at the half and nearly fell, but recovered quickly and flashed through in the stretch, then quit suddenly when a furlong out and evidently sulked. Tommy Mitchell sustains his speed best in mud.

Scratched—37055 Almaric, 104.

Ed Lilburn, show, evens. Dotterel, show, 6 to 5. Past Master, show, evens. Fort Wayne, show, evens.

Winner—Ch. g. by Sabine—Glovina (trained by D. S. Fountain).
Went to post at 3:43. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Ultruda ran to her best form, led throughout and the slow early pace enabled her to stay the journey. Urchin got away poorly, worked a rough journey and finished fast and was best. Lena made an unexpectedly good showing, getting away badly and closing a big gap in the last half. Beana was well placed throughout, but was out of the last quarter end and ran a bad race. Rollick is in poor form. Antolee quit after going a fair six furlongs and is a rank in and out. Lapidus ran as if short.

Scratched—37040 Fairbury, 106; 36870 Galanthus, 104.

Time, 23½, 49½, 1:14½, 1:27.

Winner—Ch. h. by Cayuga—Prosperity (trained by A. C. Dean).
Went to post at 4:11. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won in a canter; second driving. F. W. Brode was lucky and led unextended throughout and far outlasted the field. He can probably beat the best in training here, being apparently sound. Dollie Wiethoff improved suddenly and displayed much speed and stamina. Bernota got away poorly, made up much ground and finished going fast and is an improved horse this year. Tizona was crowded back at the start and closed a big gap. Handpress, seriously interfered with at the half, was running fast at the end. Rey Dare, nearly left, closed a tremendous gap. Bedner's chances were destroyed at the start. Hesper, away badly, made a poor showing and acted as if sulking. Azarine was also bumped out of the race at the start. Sleeping Child ran a very bad race.

Scratched—37036 Saintly, 104.

Corrected weights—F. W. Brode, 109.

F. W. Brode, show, 4 to 1. Dollie Wiethoff, show, 2 to 1. Bernota, show, 2 to 1. Hesper, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:17, 1:41, 2:08.

Winner—Ch. c. by Claquer—Lady Graves (trained by W. Dunbar).
Went to post at 4:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Ignacio was with difficulty restrained back with the field in the first half, drew to the front at the half and practically cantered the remainder of the journey and was much the best. Forte trailed far out of the race for the first half and closed up like a flash on the far turn, running very wide, and was easily second best. Silver Fizz finished fast. Larry Wilt was prominent for a mile and only tired right at the end. Sunello failed to stay. I. O. U. is very moderate.

Scratched—37041 Searcher, 108.

Ignacio, show, 1 to 2. Forte, show, 1 to 2. Silver Fizz, show, 3 to 5.
